West University Place to Celebrate its Centennial Anniversary in 2024!

WEST UNIVERSITY PLACE, TX – On Monday, December 4, Mayor Susan Sample and City Council Members kicked off the annual Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony by unveiling the City’s Centennial logo to be used throughout the year 2024.

The Centennial Committee was present at the event and mingled with event attendees passing out commemorative centennial ornaments and information about the upcoming events. Committee members include Deborah Harper, Dick Yehle, Eric Orzeck, John Koenig, Kalie Rainsberger, Soraya Brombacher, Anastasia Domakhina, Irene Alvarez, Lindsay Steinberg, and Marnie Leishman.

The committee is planning two events next year, including the Founders’ Day Social on Thursday, January 18, and the Centennial Celebration Festival on Saturday, May 4. Additionally, the group is preparing a coffee table book dedicated to the 100th anniversary, showcasing the city’s history through photos.

The countdown to the centennial is on, and the City of West University Place stands ready to embark on a journey of memories, traditions, and joyous moments that will be cherished for another hundred years.
