West University Place to Celebrate a Century of History at Founders' Day Social

WEST UNIVERSITY PLACE, TX – West University Place, a thriving hub of history and progress, is gearing up for a momentous celebration as it reaches its centennial milestone. Founded in 1924, the city is set to commemorate its rich heritage and pay tribute to its visionary founders with an exciting Founders' Day Social event at City Hall on Thursday, January 18, at 6 p.m.

Whether you are a long-time resident or new to the community, it is sure to be an unforgettable experience that will honor the past, celebrate the present achievements, and set sights on a future filled with boundless possibilities.

“We are not just marking a century of history, we are celebrating the unwavering spirit and resilience that defines our community,” said Mayor Susan Sample. “Together, we honor the trailblazers who laid the foundation for a thriving community and look forward to a future where the legacy of West U shines for generations to come”.

The event promises to be a grand affair, filled with fellowship and nostalgia and opening of the City's time capsule.
